

Essay Titles used in 11+ Exams

A surprising spy Removed Break time at school Write a story about a lost key Is life too hectic to enjoy fully? My favourite memories A farewell party An attempted robbery It was a while before I realised my cat could talk Moving Houses I don't know what that noise was ..... The new pupils The storm The Burglary My Brilliant Idea Visiting Relatives The Balloon The school rules Panic A place that inspires you Your favourite day out Are Jamie Oliver's new school dinners a good idea? What makes a good friend? Describe the scene and the activities at a bus station. What are your reactions to discipline? How far is it necessary both at home and at school? How does the life of your generation differ from that of your grandparents?	Discuss the good and bad effects of competition in modern life Is life too hectic to enjoy fully? Write a story with Alone as the title, where you suddenly realise that you are on your own. It may be true or entirely made up, but it should include your thoughts and feelings as well as what happened. Write a story (true or made up) about a visit you make to some relations of your own. Write a letter to a cousin inviting him to stay with you. You should try and interest him in some of the varied and unusual activities he can take part in. Describe a situation which you have experienced which might also be called A Magical Moment, showing what your thoughts and feelings are. Write a clear description of an animal you know well. Make sure you describe what it does and how it behaves as well as what it looks like. I prefer Winter to Spring The door and what was behind it The prince of Darkness is a Gentleman Ash on an old man's sleeve My hobby Write a story that begins with the words, I had been waiting for such a long time for this to happen Write a description of someone you admire. (You may choose someone you actually know, or someone you have never met. Describe them and explain why you admire them.)
--	---

